Vacation Service of the Trade Union
Gross-Berlin

15 June 1952

Subject: Vacation Traffic -- Special Directives

Areas prohibited for FDGB travelers (Vacation Service of the Trade Unions): within 5 km. of the prohibited border areas in Saxony-Anhalt and Thuringia

Locations: Saxony-Anhalt (Harz); Brandenburg, Fläming, Schliersee, Tanne, Ilsenburg, Hohenstein Thuringia; Bischofsstein, Meenacher Jatz, Ellenbogen (Hohen)

Travelers from West Berlin are not allowed to travel to the places indicated.

Travelers from the Democratic sector and the East will abide by the following:

An adequate entry request will be submitted to the local police authorities (for Berlin: Headquarters of the Berlin Volkspolizei, Neue Koenigstrasse, room No. 3035) by presenting the traveler's pass and personal identity card.

According to information on hand these requests are handled according to date, i.e. for furlough trips which will be made at the end of August, residence permits will only be issued shortly prior to the actual departure.

Prohibited areas or security zone, Baltic Sea Coast.

A strip 5 km. wide along the entire Baltic sea coast has been declared a security area.

West Berliners, West Germans, and foreigners may not travel to Baltic sea resorts.

FDGB-travelers (Vacation Service) may travel to Baltic sea resorts with their traveler's pass and personal identity card. (West Berlin colleagues are excluded).
No trip can be made without a traveler's pass. This also applies to children who accompany members to their vacation spots.

According to information received from the Berlin Headquarters of the Volkspolizei private travelers, including FDGB comrades from the Democratic sector, may not travel to Baltic sea resort towns.

FDGB-travelers from West Berlin who are in the possession of a traveler's pass may travel to the vacation areas of Harz, Thuringia, Brandenburg, Saxony, Mecklenburg, with the exception of prohibited areas, as soon as certain prerequisites are completed.

The following is required:

West Berlin colleagues must obtain a residence permit from the local district police authorities of the vacation spot.
This permit will be sent directly to the competent administration authorities in Berlin.
The following authorities are competent for the districts:

for the districts of Leutcollin, Angerhof, Steglitz, Kreuzberg

The Magistrat of Gross-Berlin, Treptow.
A. Gene Krollitz

For the districts of Wedding, Reinickendorf, Moorgarten, Spandau

The Magistrat of Gross-Berlin, Parkow,
11-43 Treitestrasse

For the districts of Wilmersdorf, Charlottenburg, Schoenoberg, Zehlendorf

The Magistrat of Gross-Berlin, Berlin-Mitte,
6-8 Oberwallstrasse

Upon receipt of the residence permits, the above headquarters (Treptow, Parkow and Berlin-Mitte) will issue the traveling permits.

Colleagues from West Berlin who receive their pay only in West Marks will have to pay three West Marks for this certificate. Comrades who work in the Democratic sector and get an exchange rate will have to pay only three Marks of the Deutsche Notenbank.

It is recommended to have the BIL help the comrades to obtain the necessary authorizations, i.e. to have the BIL submit and approve the necessary request to the District police authorities.
